

Objective Statement

- To provide a safe and loving environment for children away from parents.
- To provide guidance that will help children adjust to adults, other than parents, and to children of their own age.
- To share religious, social, and cultural values with children through stories, songs, bible verses, prayers, playing, and group experiences. The atmosphere is distinctly Christian, but very much non-denominational.
- To assist in the development of skills and aptitudes of each child in a learning environment.
